Carmel's Could-be Champions

Carmel High Padres led by halfback Phil Zobel romped over Gilroy High School 41-14 last Saturday. Zobel scored 3 touchdowns, recovered a fumble, and intercepted a Gilroy pass for the day.

With the score 7-6, in Carmel's favor in the second quarter, Carmel let loose, scoring on a 65-yard run by Zobel and a 15-yard pass to Di Lorenzo.

On the first play of the second half, Ralph Juarez rambled 79 yards to a 4th Carmel touchdown. The last two touchdowns came on a 40-yard pass play to Zobel and a 33-yard run by Dennis Clark.

Carmel plays King City this Friday in a game which could decide who will be the first Mission Trail champion.

BITS & PIECES by ye editor
WHERE THERE'S SMOKE, THERE'S FIRE!

Almost every organization in Carmel Valley seems to be involved in some sort of internal dissension (polite word for "fight"). Our glamorous vale has long had a reputation for contentiousness, but lately it seems more and more deserved.

Is the Valley unusual in this respect? Perhaps we do have more than our share of "rugged individualists", but a long talk last week with Don Marshall, new editor of the Pine Cone, helped clarify our thoughts in this respect:

In established towns (such as Carmel) leaders in various activities have long since been chosen. There is mutual recognition among citizens of each other's abilities and motives. Once Carmel Valley had undergone the initial pangs of zoning, the Master Plan, and joining the Unified School District, the nucleus of Carmel Valleyites who had settled here in the 20's and 30's looked forward to a relative peace.

CHANGE, CHANGE

But now, even as many of the Valley's longtime leaders are deciding it is time to retire from public life, we have renewed growth and an influx of new people seeking to become part of the community.

The only excuse for a small community weekly is that it serve its community constructively. It has not seemed to us constructive to air fights within private organizations -- even though this means that every angry individual with a special point of view will be sore at the Outlook at one time or another for not espousing his cause! (Note that the Letters to the Editor column does provide a way to publicize causes--though we usually reject letters which are unsigned or seem to represent only personal grievances. Those too much in a hurry to want to write letters have the right to make a public statement in our news columns, so long as they are not ashamed to attach their own name thereto.)

PEACE, PEACE

In general, we feel that fights within neighborhoods, private clubs, and between individuals are more apt to be resolved peaceably without the glare of publicity.

But when there is trouble within a body supported by public funds and involving the basic welfare of the community, we should be doing less than our duty if we did not call it to our readers' attention.

Having inspired (we can only hope) a reflective mood, we present a recommendation that is bound to ruffle some tempers:

FIRE DEPARTMENT

We suggest that citizens who are proud of the excellent fire protection available in the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire District attend the next few meetings of the Board of Fire Commissioners. Because the problems in the department have a direct bearing on the safety of our homes, the public should at least be aware of them.

For some time the volunteers who work with Chip Collins (the district's one full-time paid fireman) have felt that he should have a raise. According to a salary survey published by the California Firemen's Association, Chip is evidently THE lowest-paid fireman in the state. He gets $525 per month, which leaves him approximately $435 take-home pay; he has no medical or retirement plan, no paid holidays. Another item in the district budget which has caused comment is $131.25 per month paid to Chief O.T. Valnizza as an expense account. Valnizza is fully employed on another part of the Peninsula and available to the department in his spare time only, therefore, as a volunteer.

NO DECISION

Chip's raise was on the agenda for last Tuesday's fire commissioners' meeting, but no decision was reached. Volunteer firemen who attended the meeting told the Outlook they were warned that if they persisted in showing up when the commissioners met, this action might be construed as "cause" to discharge Collins.

Let's not forget that our volunteers are just that. They give their time to protect our homes; steadily declining fire insurance rates within the district indicate that they have done a bang-up job. It is vital that they be satisfied with conditions under which they work; it is important that the "team spirit" be not unduly disturbed.

Fire commissioners meet on the second Tuesday evening of each month. How about marking November 14 on your calendar now? --B.B.

Children's Play To Open Winter Season

BY CHRISTOPHER MILO

Predicting the success of a show is like being out on a limb but judging from the response to the Fantasy Players' preview performance of "The Brave Little Tailor" for the fourth grade class of the Tularcitos Elementary School, it is a solid venture to start their winter season. The show will play at White Oaks Theatre each Sunday afternoon during October (starting this week!) at 2:30 p. m. Reservations can be made by calling the theatre or tickets can be obtained at the box office at show time.

In the humorous and charming story, the little tailor proves his strength is "greater than anything in the world" as he defends two queens and their maid from the giant and his "Big Brother" giant. Gale Peterson directs, and members of the cast include Don Mulderick in the title role, Eleanor Stoltz and Barbara Cook playing the two queens and Angene Feves as their maid. Jonathan Hugger and Christopher Milo act the roles of the giants.

May we suggest a theatre party as a delightful way to celebrate those October birthdays? The theatre is equipped with a patio and facilities for a party before the show.

Aside from the performances at the theatre, this show is available to P. T. A. groups and schools in the area.

The Fantasy Players have been presenting productions for younger members of communities for the past four years. In addition to the residents of Carmel Valley, hundreds of youngsters in the Peninsula area have enjoyed these live stage shows for children.

Organ Concert Sunday

makes his home in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Duncan, operators of the Lowrey Organ Studio at Carmel Plaza, have arranged Sunday's concert, which will begin at 2:00 p. m. Mr. Smith will play for about 45 minutes; there will be a short intermission with coffee served in traditional Tantamount style in the open air lobby bordered by giant oaks and one of Carmel Valley's most famous vistas. The concert will then resume for another half hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan say that if public response is sufficient, there will be more concerts at Tantamount for public pleasure. Korla Pandit is available for these concerts, also, and "We will have him next time if the people want him," said Mrs. Duncan.

Fidelity Club Chooses New Officers

BY NELL SCOTT

New officers for the Fidelity Club were chosen in a brisk campaign following a varied pot-luck supper at the Community Chapel last week. Leaders for the ensuing year will be: Fred Scott, president; Dr. George Greer, vice-president; Sterling Mummert, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Helen Greer, program chairman; Mrs. Amy Mylar, social chairman; Mrs. Nell Scott, publicity; Mrs. Anders Larson, telephone chairman.

The meeting closed with an interesting and instructive talk, with beautiful colored slides, by Sterling Mummert, formerly with the Soil Conservation Service, on the subject of the planting of California Native Wildflowers along the roads in the Valley, some six years ago. All persons in the over-50 age group are invited to meet with this club on the first Thursday of each month.

New Scoutmaster

Carmel Scout Troop 32

Kenneth Magee has volunteered to take the responsibilities of scoutmaster for Carmel Boy Scout Troop 32, according to Glenn Salyers, area commissioner.

A retired U.S. Air Force major, Magee taught a "Survival" course in the Arctic, Newfoundland, Greenland area. He first met with the troop three weeks ago, began by teaching them how to make fire with flint and steel, how to find dry wood under wet conditions, etc. Since then Magee, 43, has led the boys on an overnight hike.

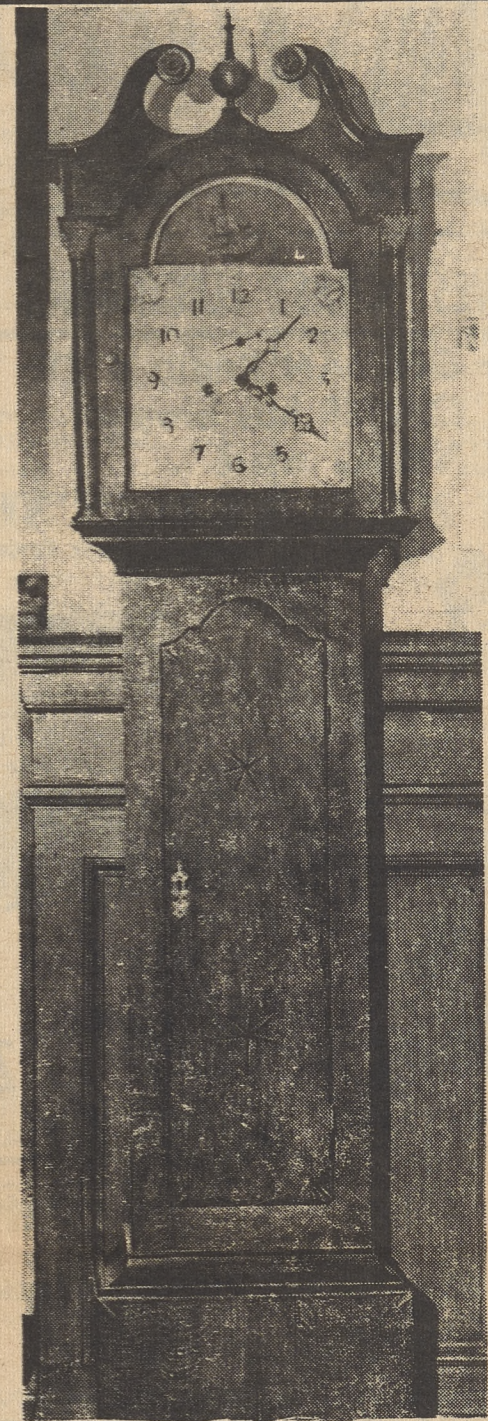

The next meeting of the troop will be Tuesday night, October 15, at 7:30 p. m. at the Scout House in Carmel. Boys aged 11 or older are invited to attend and join.

Salyers describes Magee as "a man who really loves boys, knows how to handle them, and knows how to teach them something!" The new troop leader is, incidentally, the father of four daughters--no sons!

Pedestrian Path To Junior High Nears Reality

For its efforts to obtain a pedestrian path from Hatton Fields Mesa to Carmel Junior High School, School Board Chairman Dr. Robert Newton publicly commended the Carmel Valley Outlook at last week's board meeting.

Dr. Newton advocated board action to bring plans for the path to "a successful conclusion." Trustee Clayton Neill, Jr., supported this stand. "Get it done," was his attitude on the path.

Mr. Neill and Superintendent Medill Bair, who also signified his approval of the path proposal, will confer further with county officials.

In his praise of the Outlook, Dr. Newton was referring to a series of articles and maps showing the need and possibilities for a footpath to the junior high. Written by Marjory (Mrs. Frank) Lloyd, the Outlook's Carmel editor, the articles came to the attention of Supervisor Thomson J. Hudson, who asked Mrs. Lloyd to meet with the county road department's traffic expert, L. M. Orrett.

Mrs. Lloyd and Mr. Orrett explored the Mission Fields, South Carmel Hills, and Hatton Fields Mesa area; they examined old maps and rediscovered nearly-forgotten easements. Before this exploration, Mrs. Lloyd spoke to C. M. Goldsworthy of the California Water & Telephone Company, which owns easements in South Carmel Hills. Mr. Goldsworthy told her that the water company would have no objection to use of the easements as footpaths.

Bit by bit the path seemed more and more possible. Should it become a reality, more of Carmel's children will enjoy fresh air, the outdoors, and exercise in safety on the way to school. And taxpayers will be saved the costs of their transportation. --B. B.

Rena Tomasini Now Mrs. John Ketcham

BY MILDRED HATTAN

Three hundred guests danced at the reception in the Carmel American Legion Hall following the marriage of Rena A. Tomasini and John R. Ketcham in the Carmel Presbyterian Church. Rev. George Hunter Hall performed the afternoon ceremony.

"Renee", daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley R. Tomasini of Los Robles Drive, chose a color theme of pink and white for her wedding. Pink gladioli were used to decorate the chapel and her attendants wore pink sheaths, pink butterfly veils, and carried white carnation bouquets. Maid of honor was Margaret Warner and bridesmaids were Peggy Seader and Joanne Jaenicke. Flower girl Dorothy Bommarito carried pink carnations and wore a white silk organza dress.

The bride's gown was floor length with a bouffant skirt, long tapered sleeves and a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace and silk bombazine. Her bouffant illusion veil was caught with a tiara. Her bouquet, centered with a white orchid, was a cascade of white carnations. The bride's father escorted her to the altar. Her brother, Brad, served as best man. Frank Ketcham and Norman Rianda were ushers.

While John completes his studies at Cal Poly, the young couple's address will be 28-B Casa Street in San Luis Obispo.

Community Chest Captains

Two additional captains in the Carmel Valley Residential Division of the Monterey Peninsula Community Chest campaign have been announced.

They are Mrs. Mildred Hattan and Mrs. Don Brill.

Workers recruited in the Valley in addition to those announced earlier are Mrs. Ed Haber, Mrs. Michael Dormody, Mrs. Jack J. Granoff and Mrs. John S. Power. Mrs. Blair McDonald is Valley Residential chairman, with a goal of $4,935 to be raised by Valley Residential volunteers.

Dr. E. P. Marcucci is chairman of the Carmel Valley Business Division and has recruited his team mostly from the roster of Carmel Valley Kiwanis. Their goal is $1,083.

Stephen G. Magyar, Cannery Row businessman, last week (Oct. 1) talked briefly at the meeting of the Valley Kiwanis on the occasion of the official kickoff date for the Peninsula campaign.

The over-all campaign has a goal of $172,570, which is 22 percent more than was actually raised last year.

Mrs. Thomson Hudson is residential chairman for the Peninsula.

COMMUNITY CENTER MEMBERSHIP INCREASES

Membership in the Carmel Valley Community Center has increased markedly during the past week, with a current total of nearly 125, proudly announced Jim Smith, newly elected president of the organization.

Smith wished once again to invite all Valley residents to join. The $1 fee for a year's membership will be accepted with alacrity at the Thunderbird Shop or may be mailed to treasurer Martha Huff at 32 Laurel Drive, Carmel Valley.

Not only has the center obtained new members, Smith reports, but "We have been deluged with offers to help with the swimming pool fund drive—even though this has not formally begun as yet!"

October 28 is the date of the next meeting of the Community Center's board of directors, with a progress report from Bob Jones, chairman of the Swimming Pool Committee, due for presentation. Board meetings are open to all members.

Mrs. Huff also wished to remind residents that the center is available to private groups or individuals for meetings or parties. The charges are $5 for a daytime rental, $10 for an evening, or $15 if the kitchen facilities are used. She reports that several birthday parties have been scheduled at the center recently. For reservations, call Mrs. Huff at 659-2007.

AAUW Rummage Sale Benefits Education

DOLLARS FOR SCHOLARS, the annual Rummage Sale sponsored by the American Association of University Women for the benefit of its fellowship program for women graduate students, will take place October 12 at the Exhibition Hall of the Monterey County Fairgrounds. The doors will open at 9 a. m. on the wide variety of new and next-to-new items for family, home, and garden, according to Miss Ellen Little, general chairman. Home-made cake and tea or coffee will be available at a refreshment booth.

Among fifteen departments of items for sale, two will be in the hands of Valley women: Dr. Anita Krause will be in charge of men's clothing, and Miss Bessie Irvin will offer hats and accessories.

Substitutes for the various departments include Mrs. Tom Anderson, Dr. and Mrs. George Greer, Mrs. O. L. Otteson, Mrs. Don Johnson, Mrs. Frank Bresk, Dr. Toland Doud, Mrs. Edwin Austing, Mrs. William Frisbie, and Mrs. Louis Gardner.

CJHS Now Trains Future Lifesavers

BY SANDY AVIS

C. R. A. scored a first this year when Mrs. Jean White began Jr. Life Saving instructions for CJHS students at the high school pool.

The 15 girls who passed the required tests to qualify for the program practice each Monday and Friday. Jr. Life Saving (age group 12-15 years) prepares the individual for Sr. Life Saving (over 16 years) and lifeguard duties at a pool.

Students who qualified showed ability to crawl, side stroke or breast stroke ten laps; surface dive and swim under water; tread water; float; scissors kick and regular dives.

Those who qualified are as follows: Sue Lang, Sue Rich, Nancy Merz, Roberta Goulding, Martha Crow, Karen Koontz, Karen Van Bibber, Sandy Sullivan, Robin Stevens, Jerry Stone-son, Lee Lowrie, Connie Wermuth, Linda Shelton, Paula Bingham and Lynn Campbell.

BY AMANDA BAKER

Thirty to forty girls running in a mad dash toward the P. E. building after school at Carmel Junior High is not an unusual sight. They just want to get to the Girls Recreational Association which meets every Wednesday immediately after school.

On Saturday mornings approximately thirty girls have formed bowling teams and are working out at the Monterey Lanes.

Something new this year is the Red Cross Junior Life Saving Course taught at the Carmel High School by Mrs. Jean White, Mondays and Fridays from 3:30 to about 5:00.

During the year the girls participate in all of the seasonal sports. The current match play is splatter-ball.

Student Council

BY JEFF WICKHAM

The Carmel Junior High has just held its first Student Council meeting. The meeting was directed by Student Body President Mel Grimes, Vice-President Steve Meadows and Secretary Julie Fehring.

The members representing the ninth grade are as follows: Greg Sprung, Mike Axtman, Neil Benoroya, Raymond Baga, Jim Sweeney and Larry Leslie. The eighth grade representatives are Randy Newman, Janet Sprague, Shirley Manor, Becky Rendrick, Ed Harrison, Joele DeMaria and Nancy Vartabedian. The representatives for the seventh grade are Robert Kvenild, Jeff Wickham, Barney LaBoril, Wayne Kendall, Connie Hood, Chris Wall and Dan O'Brien.

Two of the main subjects brought up during the meeting were the great number of tardy students and the very dirty campus. The dirtiness of the campus is due to the careless students throwing their trash on the ground without thinking.

Logan Hall PTA

BY MILDRED HATTAN

Logan Hall Parent-Teacher Association will meet Wednesday, October 17, at 8:00 at the school near the intersection of Schulte and Carmel Valley Roads. A panel discussion will be presented.

Another year dedicated to assisting in the training and education of the Peninsula's trainable mentally retarded children opened with back-to-school activation of Logan Hall PTA recently. A coffee hour preceded the meeting held at the school on Carmel Valley Road, with Tom O'Connor, new director of special education for the Monterey office of education and Miss Karen Ewoldsen, a new addition to the teaching staff, as guests of honor. Miss C.L. Kier, head teacher at Logan Hall has two assistants, specialists supplied by the County office in the fields of music, P.E., and speech. There is also a staff of fine volunteers --among them students from MPC whose services have been invaluable.

Logan Hall will soon celebrate its tenth anniversary, having been set up in January of 1954. It is presently operating through mutual cooperation of the County Office of Education and the Carmel Unified School District, which provides the building. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lang of the Valley were among parents who assisted in erecting the new fence with materials supplied by the County office.

Current enrollment includes 3 students from Carmel Valley, 14 from Seaside, 4 from Monterey, 4 from Pacific Grove, 4 from Pebble Beach, 4 from Carmel, 1 from Marina, and 6 from Fort Ord.

The Carmel Art Association recently donated a sofa to Logan Hall.

Auditions October 12 For Youth Orchestra

Auditions for a Youth Orchestra, open to young players through junior college age and under the supervision of John Gosling, Monterey County Symphony conductor, will take place October 12, beginning at 9 a.m. in the Monterey High School music room. Written application forms will be available to students through their school music instructors.

Several rehearsal sessions each month are planned, rotating among the various communities, and two public performances have been tentatively scheduled for the first season. The orchestra, according to Mr. Gosling, will serve as a supplement to the music programs currently in progress, and should provide opportunities for learning and performing not otherwise available.

VALLEY VOLUNTEERS HOLD OPEN HOUSE

This is Fire Prevention Week, and it's Open House at the fire station 8:30-5:00 p.m. through Saturday, October 12. The public is invited to inspect the latest in fire fighting apparatus and first aid equipment which stands by in the Valley for our protection.

During this week, the department will present their junior fire marshal program to Tularcitos grades one through six. According to tradition, each student will receive a badge, helmet and comic book containing valuable fire prevention information.

Tours of the firehouse will be given during the week to nursery school and kindergarten pupils.

Lecturer Urges US-Russian Cooperation

BY MARIAN TOWNER

Teen-agers who will be world leaders "30 or 40 years from now" were among those who heard a prediction of extremely critical international relations at that time from Dr. Julian Towster, speaking on "Kruschev's Foreign Policy Design" under the auspices of the World Affairs Council of the Monterey Peninsula at Carmel High School last week.

The threat comes from Red China, Dr. Towster said, whose young people are already working harder than those in any other country, mobilizing more rigidly, throwing themselves more devotedly into a vision of world domination, and willing to die in great numbers for a national idea.

"Unless the U.S. and Soviet Russia can learn to live together, by agreement and not war, in the next ten years," he said, "we may find a mighty and powerful China attempting to impose its peculiar philosophy upon the world. Fortunately, many young people in captive countries are beginning to think for themselves and when sent to Russia for Communist indoctrination, return home with better command of the Russian language, but rejecting the political ideas they were sent to absorb. The new nations are not going Communist, and cultural exchanges are operating behind the Iron Curtain in favor of the West, but the threat has not vanished, and China has not accepted Kruschev's doctrine of peaceful co-existence."

Dr. Towster predicted that by 1980 nine out of ten Americans will be living in metropolitan areas and education will be the outstanding growth industry. He also quoted the saying, "It will be easier for a Soviet citizen to get to the moon than to get to Paris" even in 1980.

Poland-born, Russian-speaking, Dr. Towster is a professor from the University of California at Berkeley and has recently returned from a year abroad on a Fulbright scholarship. He obtained his Ph.D. at the University of Chicago, has taught there and has been a foreign policy expert with the U.S. Department of State (1945-49) and a program consultant for San Francisco's TV station KQED.

Waltz through washday with an electric dryer!

148-W-1063

The tempo of washday is relaxed when you have an electric dryer. You don't have to lift and lug those back-breaking baskets of wet wash any more. (The average homemaker handles about two tons of wet wash a year.)

Ironing is easier, too. New damp-dry settings make clothes come out just right for ironing. And some fabrics come out so wrinkle-free, they need no ironing at all.

You'll be able to dry your wash at any hour of the day or night, in any weather. Laundry comes out soft, fluffy... looks and feels good. And an electric dryer's ultra-violet light gives your clothes the sweet scent of summer sunshine.

You'll save money on clothing—especially for "small-fry". Clothing lasts longer, and fewer clothes and linens are needed when you can wash and dry any time. Why not waltz down to your Reddy Recommended Dealer's today?

School Bus Problems Plague Board

At its last two meetings the board of education of Carmel Unified School District explored means of reducing the cost of transporting students to school. Further exploration is scheduled for October 16 and could eliminate some existing school bus routes.

Superintendent Medill Bair's request for two new buses on September 25 caused the board to consider the district's transportation problem.

At present the school district operates nine buses on four routes along main thoroughfares and nine routes off these main roadways.

Budgeted this year for this service is the sum of $75,396. Of this amount, $50,396 is set aside for salaries of employees needed to operate the school bus program; $25,000 to cover other transportation expenses.

At the start of this school year, Mr. Bair found one 1948 57-passenger bus would cost $2,000 to put in running order. He removed it from service and asked the board for a 60-passenger bus to replace it, cost $8,000. In addition, he requested a 91-passenger bus, cost $27,716.

The board took no action on the requests but set a special meeting last week to study the district's principles governing student transportation in an effort to discover some means of lessening transportation costs, possibly by revising these principles.

The principles state that the board acknowledges a financial obligation to assist in pupil transportation for those students living beyond a two-mile limit from a school or school bus stop; also mileage payments to adults transporting students who live farther than two miles from the nearest bus stop.

Suggested last week was an adjustment of "up to" ten cents per mile payment for this service instead of the ten cents a mile payment now in effect.

The board also considered possible elimination of some side routes. One of these was the bus run to the junior high school from Mission Fields and Hatton Fields.

Chairman Dr. Robert Newton remarked that it had been brought to his attention that fewer students rode on this run on rainy days.

"Is this a general tendency throughout the district?" he asked Ed Goodrick, who is in charge of transportation.

"The reverse is true, students who ordinarily ride bicycles to school take the bus when it rains," Mr. Goodrick replied.

Previously Trustee Clayton Neill, Jr. spurred discussion of another route in Carmel Valley at the southeast corner of the district. Here a 20-mile round trip run each school day this year will cost the district $3,775 to transport children in two families to Tularecito School.

A report from Mr. Bair showed that if all Carmel Valley side routes were eliminated, the district would save $9,368.

On September 25, he observed that a seven-mile round trip to Anderson Canyon added to the Highway One run was undertaken to pick up one pupil.

Beside further considering the district's transportation problems next Wednesday, trustees will hear a report on a pedestrian path to the junior high from Hatton Fields.

San Carlos Facelifting

Two corners on upper San Carlos Street are in the midst of redevelopment which necessitated demolition of buildings.

At the northeast corner of San Carlos and Fourth, three buildings have been torn down to prepare the site for a motel-restaurant development by Howard Bucquet and H. R. Fonseca. Demolished have been the Travelers Lodge, the Watson building and the former home of Mrs. Louis Mayer (Dora Hagemeyer).

The Shell Oil Company is redeveloping the southeast corner of San Carlos and Fifth. Here a building, formerly occupied by a plumbing shop, was removed to prepare the new service station site.

Ocean Avenue Parade Heralds High School Carnival

BY MARTHA CAMPBELL
C. H. S.

Dismissed early from Friday classes, Carmel High School students will swarm down the hill--some afoot, some in gaily decorated cars--to join the annual parade down Ocean Avenue. Townspeople will gather to enjoy the spirited procession--each student dressed in an original costume appropriate to this year's "circus" theme--and to accept the students' invitation to attend the Scholarship Carnival which will be held Saturday on the high school grounds.

HELP NEEDED

For Saturday, cooperation is urgently needed in the baking of cakes, cookies, bread, and other culinary delights to be sold at the bake sale. Any contributions will be gratefully accepted at the high school cafeteria the day of the Carnival. A varied assortment of rummage may be purchased at inexpensive prices at the Senior Auction, the largest and most popular concession. Anyone who has available rummage may call the high school and some students will be most happy to pick it up.

ATTRACTIONS

Clubs that will be displaying colorful and interesting concessions include the Leaders Club, the Spanish Club, the French Club, the Latin Club, the German Club, Girls' League, Lettermen's Club, F. H. A., C. A. A., Rally Club, and T. O. T. 's.

The public is cordially invited to the C. H. S. Carnival and both faculty and students unanimously agree that the 1963 Carnival will be the most successful ever.

Weekly Card Games

Mrs. Eugene Ingalls, chairman of the card committee of the Carmel Woman's Club, announces that regular weekly meetings for those interested in cards will begin on Monday, October 14 in the club building at 9th and San Carlos Streets. Tables will be provided for Bridge and Canasta. Some members have indicated their interest in Progressive Bridge and tables will be provided for this purpose for those who make their desire known.

Reservations for tables or individual playing should be made not later than October 11. Mrs. Ingalls asks that she be called direct at 624-2849. Guests are always welcome.

Serving with Mrs. Ingalls will be Mrs. Joseph Bird, Miss Agnes Leining and Mrs. James E. Stavely. Refreshments will be served as usual at 12:30 and cards will follow immediately.

Philharmonic Concerts on KRML

New York Philharmonic Concerts for the next eight months will be broadcast live to Peninsula residents through the facilities of radio station KRML. Originating in the Lincoln Center for performing arts in New York City, the concerts are reaching local listeners at 12 noon on Sundays. Conductors for the season will be Leonard Bernstein, George Szell, and Joseph Krips, supplemented by several specially chosen young conductors.

Direct transmission over telephone lines to a network of radio stations throughout the country makes the live broadcasts possible. Station KRML, now in its third year, specially features classics in literature and music in its daily programming. Its offices are located in the Carmel Rancho Shopping Center at the entrance to Carmel Valley.

Junior High Parents To Hear Superintendent

Medill Bair, new superintendent of Carmel Unified School District, will speak for the first time to the Junior High School Parent-Faculty Club on Tuesday evening, October 15, at 7:45. His topic will be "The Educational Program in the District."

Selections by the beginning chorus, under the direction of William Purdy, will open the program. All parents of junior high school students are invited to attend club meetings, which are held in the student activity room.

Research scientist Pensive T. Ousled says: "Social acceptability plays a highly significant role, status-wise. It seems evident that to get with it and all that jazz, one has to read the OUTLOOK. I mean dig, man, only $1 for a trial subscription, details on page 16."

LIBRARY

Carpenters are measuring and getting ready to triple the size of our library in Casa Central. Sadie Bennett, our librarian, says "not a minute too soon." Mrs. Bruce Mudgett and several other members are standing by, waiting to catalog and place the books on the shelves.

GIFTS

In addition to the many books donated by the members, we have received the following gifts:--An Exercycle from Father Paul Redmond; a 16MM Sound Projector from Mr. C.P. Hill, and Woodworking equipment from Mr. H. Sutcliffe. A beautiful holly tree which stands at the entrance to Casa Central was the gift of William Leino, Frank Tittermore, and several other members who prefer to remain anonymous.

BIRTHDAYS

At our "Dime a Dip" dinner last Monday, those members with birthdays in October were presented with a huge birthday cake, the gift of our Chefs, Wesley Jimerson and Mrs. Lawrence Bourke. New members were introduced.

Samples of chairs for our new auditorium were shown and tried for size and comfort.

ARTS

Miss Donna Davis, our Art Director, is now organizing an Art Class which will soon occupy new quarters in Casa Fiesta. Casa Fiesta is our new Art Center which is equipped with a kitchen, a stage, and will have seating for four hundred persons.

SWIMMING POOL

Activities at the swimming pool increase daily. Among those taking daily dips are: Mrs. Ed Styskal, Mrs. Elsie Pierre, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Irwin, and Dr. Edward McCormick. Also there are a few members who confine their efforts to toe dunking and sun bathing.

DEER

A few nights ago, the herd of deer who live on the Carmel River, next to us, went on a foraging expedition through the gardens of many of our members. Quite a lot of damage was done, but at least the rose bushes and shrubs will not have to be pruned this year!

Womens Club Hears Travel Talk

BY JULIE POWER

Forty-six members and guests attended the Carmel Valley Womens Club October luncheon meeting held at Reuben's. The tables were decorated with autumn leaves and marigolds. Halloween pumpkins with multi-colored hats served as centerpieces for each table. Mrs. Irving Ollason, president, decorated the pumpkins and after the meeting donated them to Children's House for the enjoyment of the youngsters.

Dr. J.D. Blacow, guest speaker, was well received because his talk highlighted the contrasts and true realities of the countries visited during his recent global travels, dwelling on aspects not heard in the usual travelogue.

Mesdames Ralph A. Stevenson, Donn R. Schoenmann, Charles E. Hunt and Ruth G. Wade were welcomed as new members of the club. A letter of resignation as treasurer was received from Mrs. Walter V. Patton and the board elected Mrs. John S. Power to fill the office for the balance of the term.

Members voted to sponsor Girl Scout Troop #87 and for an additional contribution to Children's House due to the recent dissolution of the Carmel Valley Youth Group.

The November meeting will be a tea at the Community Center; details will be announced later.

Mrs. John Menezes and Mrs. Clyde Mace displayed their original hats and bags.

Mr. Donald Brill has accepted the post of finance chairman for the Board of Trustees of the Carmel Valley Community Chapel. The board has scheduled the second Tuesday of each month as their new meeting night.

Probably the busiest (and certainly the happiest) grandparents in the Valley last week were Dorothy and Oscar Durham whose twin granddaughters Melanie and Kimberly Durham were here for a visit from their home in Petaluma.

Dorothy had news of some of the traveling Valleyites. A note from Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Dickie of Laurel Drive who left on a tour of the states the first of September found them presently in Niagara Falls. . . . Ursa and Howard Swigart of Chaparral Road who left for a tour of Europe in May were in Garmisch in the Bavarian Alps and missing the dry Valley fall weather. . . . General and Mrs. R. O. Bare of Robles del Rio are visiting their family in the east. They had traveled through the Grand Teton and enjoyed the glorious autumn coloring enroute.

Marta Flugham, who worked in Dr. Van Horn's office, has moved to Belmont where she is doing private nursing.

Increased enrollment at Tularcitos Elementary School made it necessary to add a new first grade class and weren't we lucky to have Mrs. Zane (Imogene) Speiser who recently moved to the Valley available for the position! Imogene presently has 20 pupils enrolled in her class.

Jean and Rudi Mallek have leased their home on Merrill Way, taken a trailer and will live in the Vandenberg Air Base area until the first of the year. They plan an extended trip with their trailer, will be gone for about a year.

Tom Waters spent a week at the Ahwahnee in Yosemite, enjoying "red carpet" treatment all the way, as recognition for winning the "Star Club" award of the life insurance company for which he is agent. Unfortunately, Ellen's job kept her from going along on the all-expense paid vacation.

Home from a five-day stay in San Jose are Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Short of Robles del Rio. With Mr. Robert Dunton, Dr. Short conducted a course sponsored by the Seventh Day Adventist Church for those wishing to discontinue smoking. Approximately 50 persons attended from the San Jose area.

First Aid Call

One first aid call was made during the week by members of the first aid unit of the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department. At 8:45 September 30, Ben Updike of Lower Private Road was treated for shock and transported to the Community Hospital for treatment of a slipped disc.

WILDERNESS ACRES

50,000 acres have been added to the Wilderness System in the Central Sierras, Congressman Burt Talcott reports from Washington, D.C. The Department of Agriculture recently set aside the Mokelumne Wild Area, 60 miles east of Sacramento, in the upper drainage of the Mokelumne River near the crest of the Sierra between Ebbets Pass and Carson Pass highways.

Accessible only by trail, the area offers fine fishing and good campsites and its high peaks and ridges are described as a challenge to hikers.

MGR., VALLEY HILLS NURSERY

Bulbs hold a peculiar fascination for many of us. Being an Easterner, I always recall the thrill of seeing the first leaves push through the cold ground (or even through the snow) late in winter. Bulbs are an entity in themselves--when we purchase a bulb it already has the embryo of the following season's leaves and flowers inside partly formed! Somehow, many of us feel an attachment for them as we might for a small animal.

In California we generally come across two types of bulbs (or bulb-like structures we refer to as bulbs). One is the tender group usually coming from areas of South America and South Africa, for example the Sparaxis and Ixia. The other group is mainly indigenous to Europe and colder climates, as the Daffodil, Hyacinth, and Tulip.

The South African group prefers well-drained sunny areas where they will not get too much water during the summer months. The European group need rich well-drained soil, prefer to be planted deep so that they will stay cooler during our hot summers, and often need part shade to thrive and multiply.

Nitrogen and phosphates are important to bulbs if they are to prosper. Prepared bulb foods are now available or Hoof and Horn, Bonemeal, or Superphosphate may be used. It is important to put this food down where the roots are, preferably mixing some in just below the bulb, as phosphates do not move readily through the soil. Manure is always good in my opinion; however, don't let the bulb come in contact with a large amount of any manure, especially if it is fresh.

Planting depths vary according to the friability of the soil. Heavier soils require a shallower planting and light soils a deep planting. Here is a recommended list of depths and distances for most bulbs:

PLANTING DIRECTIONS

	Depth to Top of Bulb	Distance Apart
Anemone	2-3 in.	3-9 in.
Chionodoxa (Glory of the Snow)	3 in.	4 in.
Crocus	2 in.	3 in.
Narcissus (inc. Daffodil)	8 in.	6 in.
Gladiolus	4 in.	6 in.
Hyacinth	6 in.	6-8 in.
Dutch Iris	4 in.	6 in.
Ixia	3 in.	3-6 in.
Montbretia	3 in.	3-6 in.
Muscari (Grape Hyacinth)	2 in.	2-6 in.
Ranunculus	1 in.	4-6 in.
Snowdrop	3 in.	4 in.
Tulip	7 in.	6-8 in.
Watsonia	4 in.	9 in.

MPVS Proposes Gift To Hospital

Mrs. Arthur Dresser of Carmel Valley, chairman of the finance committee of the Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services, has proposed a gift of $1690.00 to the Community Hospital for the purchase of a cryostat. This device enables the operating surgeon to determine within five minutes the nature of the tissue while the patient is still on the operating table. The general meeting at the USO of MPVS voted to make the gift and the treasurer was instructed to send the check to the hospital.

Mrs. Byington Ford's letter of thanks on behalf of Children's House for $2500.00 and Mrs. Ruth Sarett's letter on behalf of the Carmel's Town House for thanks for $1500.00 were read by Mrs. Wm. Howard Church, corresponding secretary.

Gem Show This Weekend

his petrified wood butterflies he will display some very special mineral specimens from San Benito County, which won first prize at the recent Hollister show.

Roscoe Russell of Carmel Highlands, will have a case of silver work, and there will be a fluorescent exhibit from the Naval Postgraduate school. Decorations will be carried out in driftwood, rocks, succulents, and other natural material by Carmel sculptress, Rachel Church.

Show hours (Saturday from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. and Sunday from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.), will be enlivened by artists at work. There will be demonstrations going on at all times--PLEASE, let the artists have a coffee break!

Here is a list of demonstrators: Jerry Church and Bill Culver will facet gemstones, Jack Gunter will make cabochons, Urcel Holloway will drill stone; with Cal Keator sawing stone, Joe Ricupero making jewelry, Roscoe Russell doing silver work and Charlie Underwood showing electric soldering.

AUCTION

Besides beautiful displays and interesting demonstrations, there will be grab bags sold by junior members, a silent auction, exhibits by "Pebble Pup" members, and refreshments. The public will see in dozens of display cases and at demonstration benches the tangible evidence of days, weeks, and even years of creative work and training.

As with any show, just to make possible the presentation of these things requires a great coordinated effort of many people before, during and after the event itself. There have been weeks of planning, soliciting, gathering and arranging for the reception and welfare of visitors. As show time draws nearer, the activity of participants and planners alike rise to a climactic pitch. Not the least of those called into duty will be the refreshment committee, policing and security details, construction and maintenance personnel, guides, and clean up crews. Yet, as one of the seven hundred groups of its kind in the U.S. forming the American Federation of Mineralogical Societies, the Carmel Valley Gem and Mineral Society is proud to bring its show to the Monterey Peninsula!

IN MEXICO

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanton are in Mexico this month. Mr. Stanton's main reason for the trip was to attend an architectural conference in Mexico City.
